Mon. James H. Hoyt at the Opera-House Last Evening.

One of the largest and most enthusiastic political gatherings ever witnessed in Maysville assembled at the Opera-house last evening to hear the Republican side of the issues ably presented by the Hon. James H. Hoyt of Cleveland, O.

The speaker was presented by the Hon. A. M. J. Cochran of this city, who was a champion of Mr. Hoyt at Harvard.

Mr. Hoyt's reputation as a brilliant and capable orator was fully sustained by his address, and he was given an extremely cordial reception.

He was listened to throughout with the most respectful attention, and the good points so forcibly expressed and illustrated were enthusiastically cheered.

Mr. Hoyt is confessedly in the lead as the successor to Governor Bushnell of Ohio.

He was accompanied by Colonel Doty of the Cleveland newspaper press, and during their stay in Maysville both gentlemen were guests at the home of Mr. Cochran.

They left at 8:30 this morning to all other important appointments.

Hon. John G. Carlisle will not vote at the coming election for Palmer and Buckner or anyone else, for the very simple reason that he has not registered.

Mr. C. M. Johnson, Chief of the Bureau of Printing and Engraving, has arrived in Lexington. Mr. Johnson recently bolted the Chicago platform, and comes home to vote for McKinley and Hobart.

The alleged egg at Chicago of the Democratic nominee for the Presidency proves to be a case of exaggeration of the first water. It turns out that one small boy threw an egg at someone in the procession, but it came nowhere near Mr. Bryan's carriage, and the attempt to bait out an outrage is a flat failure.

National Chairman Jones Reads Them a Little Lecture, and the Breach Widens in Kentucky.

A special from Frankfort says that Chairman Jones of the silver Democratic National Committee has written the silver leaders in this state a stinging letter, criticizing them and holding them in a measure responsible for the assault on Secretary Carlisle at Covington.

Senator Blackburn is severely rebuked by Mr. Jones for tacitly endorsing the action of the mob, and the inference is left that unless Senator Blackburn can talk more judiciously than he did at Georgetown, Pleasureville and other places, he had better abdicate the stump.

JONES DIRECTS ORATOR.

Chairman Jones has directed the State Campaign Committee to ask all speakers to take special pains to condemn the Covington rowdiness, and to deny responsibility for the occurrence.

The silver leaders are sore at Chairman Jones, and the spanking they have received at his hands is said to be responsible for the breach.

Several minor speakers besides Senator Blackburn have taken occasion to justify the egg of Mr. Carlisle at Covington, and the letter from Chairman Jones is in the nature of a special order to them.

The Ledger's Leaflets—No. 38.

What splendid promises those were which Mr. Bryan and his Democratic associates made to the voters of this country four years ago, when they pledged increased prosperity to the toilers if they would adopt the Democratic policy of Free-trade.

Their promises were accepted and their policy adopted. What has been the result? An elaborate inquiry as to the number of men employed by manufacturing establishments in 36 different states in July, 1896, compared with July, 1892, shows whether or not the Democratic policy adopted by the vote in the last Presidential campaign has been what its advocates promised. The reports cover the employees of 550 establishments located in 36 states. They show that these establishments in July, 1892, gave employment to 114,231 hands, while in July, 1896, they only employed 78,700 hands.

In July, 1892, these same establishments paid in wages to their employees $3,927,200. In July, 1896, they paid to their employees $2,469,712. This shows a monthly loss of earnings to the wage earners in these 550 establishments alone of $1,457,488, or at the rate of over $17,000,000 per annum.

If this has happened to 550 establishments, what has been the loss to the wage earners in the thousands of establishments the country over?

If this is the manner in which the Democrats keep their promises of increased prosperity, do you want to trust them, either with their Free-trade ideas or the equally dangerous theories upon the currency question which they are urging?

The Ledger's Leaflets—No. 39.

What will happen, voter, if you cast your vote for Bryan and succeed in electing him on Tuesday next?

Here are a few of the things which will happen:

Gold will disappear and the purchasing power of the silver money and the paper money based upon it will be immediately reduced to the bullion value of the silver in the dollar.

This will mean an enormous contraction of the currency. The result of this would be that no bank, no business man, would loan a dollar of money, at least until business matters had been thoroughly readjusted.

That would mean that factories and workshops, which run largely upon borrowed capital would be compelled to close until business could be readjusted.

That would mean loss of your present employment, even as unsatisfactory as it may be.

That would mean suffering for yourself and family through a long period of uncertainty and enforced idleness.

Do you want these things to happen?

Contrast present conditions with those of four years ago. A majority of the voters accepted Democratic promises of prosperity through their peculiar methods four years ago, and the result has been distress, reduction of wages, and loss of employment. The Democratic party under Mr. Bryan proposes to continue the present limitations upon prosperity, which low Tariff has brought, and to add to this a reduction of one-half in the value of the money in which men and women are to be paid for their labor.

Do you want to enter upon this new Democratic experiment?

Or do you want to go back again to good times, steady employment and high wages of four years ago?

Ask your wife and children what they think about it before you go to the polls on Tuesday.

The Darlington, W. Va., Journal says editorially of a popular patent medicine: "We know from experience that Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy is all that is claimed for it, as on two occasions it stopped excruciating pains and possibly saved us from an untimely grave. We will not, however, ever again witness it in the house."

The remedy undoubtedly saves more pain and suffering than any other medicine in the world. Every family should keep it in the house, for it is sure to be needed sooner or later. For sale by J. James Wood, Druggist.

Governor William O. Bradley will speak in Lexington Saturday night.

Ephriam Marsh, who was Secretary of the Indiana Democratic State Committee in 1888, has repudiated the Chicago ticket.

Chief Sergeant of the Brotherhood of Firemen has again made an emphatic statement that he will vote for McKinley.

If betting on the general result means anything, then McKinley is the great favorite. Wagers of 5 to 1 are offered in London in lots of $25,000.

An authority on the wheat market in London explains that the rise in the price of grain is due to the shortage in the crop in India and Australia and not to any political manipulation.

A LOOK AHEAD.
Benton Would Be the Benefits of Bryan's Election.

If Mr. Bryan is elected, have you weighed what the results will be?

At Paterson, N. J., on September 28 he said: "I say to you now that an election means that the nation shall open its gates to the free exchange of both metals at the earliest possible moment. Not only that, but my election means that this nation shall treat the silver dollar just as it treats the gold dollar and that we shall not issue bonds to buy gold."

If the treasury gold reserve is got to be replenished by bond sales, it is certain that it can't last long. Foreigners would immediately call for their loans and balance their accounts with the $350,000 of outstanding greenbacks and treasury notes would quickly withdraw the $123,000,000 of gold now in the treasury, to either export or hoard it, and leave the holders of the remaining $200,000,000 to take their pay in silver.

That this gold would immediately be withdrawn, Mr. Bryan admits. On September 29 at Tammany hall he said: "You know that with gold as our only primary money and the fact that the little quantity of gold can be drawn and a man can be induced by foreign speculators, it leaves us."

As all our national bank notes are redeemable in greenbacks, they, too, would fall with greenbacks to a silver basis.

In short, Mr. Bryan's election would as soon as the present gold in the treasury is exhausted, put our currency on a silver basis, and all debts, except where otherwise expressly stipulated, would be paid in silver.

It will be observed that this would all happen, even if no free coinage act should be passed.

As interest on government bonds would henceforward be paid in silver, and also all dividends on stocks, foreign capital would dispose largely of their holdings, and a number of individuals and foreign speculators, further large remittances of gold.

Their correspondents here and borrowers of foreign money, being called on to pay up, would be compelled to call in their loans and draw their balances out of bank.

All debts in this country who pay for gold to silver dollars (which includes the bulk of them) would demand all debts due them and, paid, getting greenbacks or treasury notes for their bank balances, would present them at the treasury for gold before it was too late.

If it were possible to do so, they would buy sterling exchange or exchange on Canada. It was reported that prior to October 1 over $6,000,000 in gold had already been deposited in Canada in order to avoid the risk of coming election.

In short, every man who had a dollar coming to him would want that dollar paid him while it was still worth 100 cents and before it got to be worth but 51.

The business houses and other debtors called on to pay up would be compelled to call on their debtors, and thus all the debtors in the country would be called on to pay up immediately.

The debtors would be compelled to sell their property at any price, and where all debtors were sellers at once the demand would be such as we have never before seen such a wholesale calling in of debts, and consequently selling, as this would cause.

Business houses the country over, being compelled to collect balances due them or to realize on their stock, except at unusually low prices, if at all, must fail. Nothing could save them.

Small depositors, nervous and following the larger ones, would draw their balances, and run on banks would be compelled to do the same.

With these runs on all the banks, they must either break or suspend. In the cities the stronger ones would combine and suspend, but the weaker ones and all country banks would fail.

The panic and depression would exceed that of 1873 or of 1893, the latter of which, called the "silver panic," was caused by the apprehension only of going on a silver basis. This panic would be caused in part by actually going on a silver basis.

Mr. Bryan admits this. In the Chicago convention he said: "When you come before us and tell us that we shall disturb your business interests, we reply that you have disturbed our business interests." And the St. Louis Globe-Democrat reported him as saying: "I think it (meaning the victory of the free coinage movement) will cause a panic. But the country is in a deplorable condition, and it will take extreme measures to restore it to a condition of prosperity."

In the general scramble by foreign and home creditors for gold, as there is not enough to go round, it would necessarily go to a premium, with the inevitable result that the $17,000,000 of greenbacks in circulation now in the United States would be exported or hoarded.

Gold held stock with gold mortgages ahead of them (as gold must be bought to pay interest on the stock) would find it difficult to find a market, and the price of grain would be depreciated.

Every workingman knows this fact and easily finds it out.

Each dollar of wages will now buy much more than any dollar did before 1873.

Every workingman knows this fact and easily finds it out.

Every workingman is better off today than at any time before 1873.

Every workingman knows this fact and easily finds it out.

What is the price of corn?

If the United States can double the price of silver "without the aid or consent of any other nation," why couldn't it double the price of corn? The corn crop is worth more than the silver crop many times over, even at low prices. The chief problem is that of the old law of demand and supply. But the populists ought to make the demand that congress fix the price of corn by law.

As unemployed laborers could buy neither food nor clothing, the diminished demand would cause the prices of grain, cotton and all farm products to fall, as is always the case even in small plagues.

Of course all mortgages past due or in default would be immediately called in, and if not paid foreclosed and the mortgagees largely wiped out.

It is now generally agreed that there would be no more silver dollars in circulation than to-day, nor on the 5th of March next, since no more could be coined after a free coinage act had passed.

Such a law could not be passed without the most desperate fight by the opponents of free silver. We could not reasonably expect that the bill would become a law before next September.

Gold would take its place, but no silver currency would exist for nearly a year. During all of this time farmers would have no crops to sell and could not get much of the cheap silver money. They would, however, be paying silver prices for everything they bought, but they would not easily obtain money with which to pay debts, and mortgages would be foreclosed by wholesale.

Business activity would not return at once with restored currency, as currency is a creation of slow growth.

The outcome, therefore, for farmers in debt must inevitably prove disastrous.

As well might farmers think of profit by selling their farm or labor for francs as by selling their farm or labor for dollars, and it takes five times as many francs to make a dollar, and they could consequently get five times as many of them, as that by selling for silver dollars, two of which make a gold dollar, they could make a profit.

As expenses of living would mean less for labor or real estate (which always rise last of all commodities), even after work was found, wages would not buy as much as they do to-day. Hence, if wages were to remain at the same level as to-day, the laborer would be no better off to the end.

And how would the farmer be benefited if, starting in debt, he had in the process lost his farm?

Mr. Bryan claims it is inconsistent to say that free silver coinage will cause crime and lawlessness which would necessarily increase.

Instead of more money, which Mr. Bryan proposed us to have, that is, a depreciated silver dollar, we would have less money, which would not buy as much as they do to-day. Hence, if wages were to remain at the same level as to-day, the laborer would be no better off to the end.

In this great disaster capitalists could save themselves by buying exchange or foreclosing. The hardships and misery would fall upon the laborer and the debtor, and in debt, as upon the mass of our people—and make the rich and the poor poorer.

Crime and lawlessness would necessarily increase.

Considerable Damage Done in the Vicinity of Sherman.

A Tenement House Demolished and Four Persons Seriously Hurt.

Several People Reported Missing and Searchers Have Brought Out-The State Train at the Rate of Twenty-Five Miles an Hour.

SHERMAN, Tex., Oct. 29.—A tornado originated about 5:15 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, and, passing through the town southwest of Sherman and after forming, took a northeasterly course, passing about three miles east of Sherman. It was seen by hundreds of people in this city and in the surrounding country. The barometer registered 29.04, six points lower than it did on May 15, when the disastrous tornado visited this city. The wind here was more violent than it was some time before any effort was made to learn the extent of the damage. The first destructive work of the storm was noted 13 miles southwest of Sherman, where it demolished a tenement house on the farm of Geo. Duke. No one was hurt at that place and the tornado rose from the earth striking against a point about four miles southwest of Sherman, where it demolished a tenement house on the farm of Jim Farris, occupied by a family named Hay. Four members of this family were seriously hurt, and it is reported that Mr. Hay's back is broken. The tenement houses demolished from suburban towns asking that searchers be sent out to look for persons who are missing. Necessary articles have been sent out to care for the wounded. It will pitch dark soon after the passing of the tornado. A man who was in the Farris field is among the missing. Manager McBride of the Western Union Telegraph Company sighted the storm when it was just south of the city, and when the Denver office to that effect, Denison is 12 miles north of here, and in 30 minutes Mr. McBride received a message stating that the storm was passing east of Denison and that it would make it speed near 30 miles an hour.

A report has just come out that Lovington's schoolhouse, four miles east of Sherman was unroofed. The sky lighted up brilliantly during the passage of the storm, but darkness followed.

SPECIAL ELECTION PRAYER.

Suspecting of a Dis-parture in the Episcopal Church Introduced by Bishop Sat-ter.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 29.—A special election prayer prepared by the Rt. Rev. Bishop of the Episcopal Diocese of Washington, will be read in all the churches in this diocese next Sunday. The preparing of special in-vocation for the benefit of voters is something of a departure in the Episcopal Church. In this is a most important time in the history of the church in America that such a step has been taken. Bishop Satterlee's prayer is as follows:

"My gracious God we humbly beseech Thee for the people of these United States in general that Thou would be pleased to deepen in them the love of their country and of their neighbors in the Commonwealth, to graft in their hearts the conviction that the right of suffrage is a sacred trust, and that it is their duty to use it and to direct and prosper all their actions at this present time to the advancement of Thy Kingdom. We beseech Thee to bless all thy, honor and welfare of the people, that all things may be so ordered and settled by their hands that the world may be brought to a realization that peace and happiness, truth and justice, religion and piety, may be established among all men."

These and all other necessities for them as us and Thy whole church, we humbly beseech Thee to supply in the name of Jesus, our most blessed Lord and Saviour. Amen.

The building stone and rich deposits of onyx, or ribbon stone, are said to be 40,000 acres of the latter in Arizona can be described as mineral bearing, and only needs an introduction of sufficient capital to properly develop it.

The output of gold the past year was $1,000,000, an increase of 25 per cent over the previous year. The financial condition of the territory, the governor says, compares favorably with any other territory, and the banks are in good condition. There are about 38,000 Indians in the territory.

AT THE REQUEST OF THE CHIEF.

CHICAGO, Oct. 29.—Two young men, Chauncey C. Foster and Lewis Hanchett, were arrested Wednesday noon for throwing eggs at Bryn Mawr during the visit of the traitor, Dr. T. D. Tuesday.

On the strength of the written plea for their release sent by Mr. Bryan, Foster and Hanchett were granted a warning not to offend again, and the young men were taken home by their fathers. Foster admitted to the detection that he bought a friend and fraternized with the treason when the Union carriage passed the half of the eggs were thrown before the youths took right and ran from the room.

Mr. Foster, the president of the school announced Wednesday night that he would assemble all the instructors and pupils Thursday at noon and publicly dismiss the egg throwers in disgrace from the institution, after making a few remarks vigorously denouncing the offense of the two culprits.

Mr. Hoyt, on being notified of the novel campaign contribution, expressed his appreciation of the spirit shown by Mr. Hoyt, and then turned the deed and abstract of title over to Charles Jones, the president of the firm, the proceeds in the democratic campaign fund. The property is worth about $18,000.

CHAMBERLAIN, S. Reported That the Murderer Was Taken Around the Neck and Hanged From a Railway Bridge.

It is stated that the officers started with the man from North Bend to Black River Falls, but they were repelled by the sheriff and his men, who tied a rope about the fiendish murderer's neck and hanged him from a railway bridge.

Palmer is reported to be the son of the actual value of property in the territory as it is not assessed at its real value. Over 10,000,000 acres of land have been taken up for agricultural purposes, but of this amount only 1,000,000 acres have yet been reclaimed.

Gov. Franklin says that Arizona is without question the most attractive mineral field in the United States. It is coal, limestone, lead, zinc and silver, and the abundance and deposits of marble, red, black, grey and other stones.
